COMPASSIONATE CARE

For half a century, Cedar House has been implementing the proven principles of substance use disorder treatment to empower those affected by addiction to find wholeness in recovery.

The secret to our success?
Empathy.

We've been there. We get it. And now, we're paying it forward with compassionate care at every level.

Proudly accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Rehabilitation Facilities (CARF), Cedar House offers effective substance use and co-occurring disorders treatment, promoting safety, trust, transparency, and empowerment through trauma-informed care principles.
